Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

TERMS CASH. Dear Mr. Kennerley:-

When in 1919 I bought the library of Mr. William Loring Andrews I did not put the Americana into stock but left it in storage. It was my idea to put the Americana aside until last summer and during the summer months prepare a special catalogue, but owing to a very busy summer season in addition to the great amount of work entailed in enlarging my store, I was unable to give the time to the Americana Catalogue. Now that I am in the middle of another busy season I do not feel that I will have time to do as I wish about the Americana until next summer. In the meantime I have had many requests for many of Mr. Andrews' books in this line.

For these reasons I have now decided to send you this Collection to be sold at auction, and I should like you to say in the catalogue that every item, including the famous Bradford Map, is to be sold without any reserve whatsoever. If I do any bidding it will be strictly for the accounts of my clients whose names I shall be pleased to furnish on request.

Yours very truly,

James F. Drake

Danvers: Printed by R. Russell [1777]

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Not in Morrison. Evans cites a copy in the Mass. Hist. Soc., but gives the wrong pagination, as the present copy has 13 leaves. He also fails to mention the portrait of John Hancock.

20. —— Russell's American Almanack for the Year of our Redemption 1781. By Benjamin West. Woodcut of an astronomer making observations, on title. 12mo, crushed red levant morocco, Jansen style, gilt top, uncut, by Canape (one leaf missing).

Benjamin Church, and King Philip, ARE AMONG THE EARLIEST BITS OF ENGRAVING DONE IN NEW ENGLAND. There is inserted, a portrait of Mr. C. Churchill, unsigned, but in an oval frame almost the counterpart of that executed by Revere around the Church portrait.

This latter portrait was probably inserted by Mr. Andrews in consequence of the similarity of frame as well as portraiture; indeed the Church portrait is said to have been taken from the Churchill, with the addition of a powder horn slung around the neck.

88. CLAP (THOMAS). The Annals or History of Yale-College, in New Haven, in the Colony of Connecticut, from the first Founding thereof in the Year 1700, to the Year 1766. With an Appendix. 8vo, original sheep (worn).

In full red morocco solander case. New York, 1789

THIS IS WITHOUT QUESTION THE FINEST PERFECT COPY WHICH HAS BEEN OFFERED IN A QUARTER CENTURY, WITH ALL THE KNOWN PLATES OF MAPS, INCLUDING THE THREE * PLATES, 45*, 46* and 47*. No copies are known with plates 34-39, and the conclusion is that THESE PLATES WERE NEVER PUBLISHED. Sabin mentions only 74 plates.

The "Proposal" is laid down on the inside of the covers, and at the bottom is written in ink "Subscription papers will be sent to most of the booksellers of the Continent." This sheet seems to have been an earlier issue than that described in the Library of Congress "List of Maps of America," which contains an additional paragraph.

The maps are of themselves remarkably interesting as NOTABLE SPECIMENS OF EARLY AMERICAN ENGRAVING by C. Tiebout, an artist, who, according to Stauffer "HAS THE DISTINCTION OF HAVING BEEN THE FIRST AMERICAN-BORN PROFESSIONAL ENGRAVER TO PRODUCE REALLY MERITORIOUS WORK."

On each map special signs indicate all the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, the Town Houses, Grist Mills, Blacksmiths, Bridges, Gaols and Taverns. THE NAMES OF THE PROPERTY OWNERS THROUGHOUT ARE ALSO NOTED.

The Author was the ORIGINAL PROJECTOR OF THE ERIE CANAL SYSTEM.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is doubtful if a more satisfactory copy of these three rare volumes has ever been offered for sale. The plates are in magnificent state, and the volumes in exceptional uncut condition.

The engraved portrait of Washington by Trenchard (Hart 839) is one of the most difficult to procure in spotless condition as is the present one. The portrait of Greene, also by Trenchard, is in most brilliant state. The various views, including those of Boston, New York and Philadelphia buildings, are splendid impressions. Two unimportant plates of recent inventions appear to be wanting.

A SPLENDID COPY OF THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION of this important historical piece. Name of a former owner on title-page. Not in Nelson, and neither Evans nor Sabin located a copy. But three or four copies of this work appear to have been offered in the last quarter century.

The author was Deputy-Surveyor for the West Jersey Proprietors, and was written by him "with a design to remove the misrepresentations con-

By a Lover of Harmony. Music engraved throughout. Oblong 4to, half. maroon straight-grain morocco, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery.

Boston: Printed for, and sold by John Norman, [1784]

This excessively rare early hymn book is ascribed by Evans to William Billings, an early New England compiler, and the collation given as pp. 6, 10-95, taken in all probability from the collation of the Brinley copy, which was catalogued as lacking one leaf. Compared with the present copy, it was even more imperfect, as the present copy ends at p. 101.

A curious feature of the pagination is that the even page numbers are on the recto, and the odd numbers on the verso, which is explained by the fact that what would ordinarily have been numbered "6" is a blank page, and has been skipped. Evans does not locate a single copy in any of the large libraries. A splendid copy, except that some leaves have suffered at the binder's hands, but the book is rare in any condition.

Edinburgh: Printed for the Author, 1776

THIS LITTLE PRIVATELY PRINTED PIECE OF 64 PAGES IS OF THE UTMOST RARITY, AN EXHAUSTIVE SEARCH FAILING TO REVEAL THE OCCURRENCE OF A SINGLE COPY IN THE WHOLE RANGE OF BOOK PRICE RECORDS. The only copy recorded by Sabin is the one in Harvard.

The volume consists of 7 Letters, the first of which, dated Aug. 1774, is from New York. Then follow others from Newport, Nova Scotia, Island of St. John's, Philadelphia and Elizabethtown. There is a section devoted to the Rates of the Stages from New York to Philadelphia, also a List of Roads in North America. Aside from a small hole in one leaf and a few marginal repairs, it is a choice copy.

The perils which threatened Washington's army at this time were evidently not unknown to the Commander in Chief, as the Orders indicate his constant watchfulness and preparedness for any and all emergencies.
